GOD IS NEVER BEYOND OUR REACH  No one ever sought the Father and found He was not there, And no burden is too heavy to be lightened by a prayer. No problem is too intricate, and no sorrow that we face Is too deep and devastating to be softened by His grace. No trials and tribulations are beyond what we can bear If we share them with our Father as we talk to Him in prayer ... And men of every color, every race, and every creed Have but to seek the Father in their deepest hour of need. God asks for no credentials – He accepts us with our flaws. He is kind and understanding and He welcomes us because We are His erring children and He loves us, everyone, And He freely and completely forgives all that we have done, Asking only if we're ready to follow where He leads, Content that in His wisdom He will answer all our needs. Helen Steiner Rice	Hold unswervingly to the hope you profess, for I am faithful. Sometimes—especially when many things are going wrong—all you can do is hold on to Me. To profess hope is to affirm it openly. Your words matter! They make a difference, not only to other people but also to you. Negative words will pull you down. But when you openly affirm your hope and trust in Me, you gain strength to move forward with confidence. The basis of this confidence is that I am faithful. Moreover, I will not let you be tempted beyond your ability to endure. Sometimes the way of escape I provide is through your own words, such as "I trust You, Jesus; my hope is in You!" Because your words matter, profess your hope here—for your own sake as well as for those whose paths you are soon to cross. (Shared by Sister Sandra Pilgreen)

Pray then let it go. Don't try to manipulate or force the outcome.
Just trust God to open the right doors at the right time.
